Disclosure of Securities Holders
Current Practices

AECSD Annual Training Seminar, June 2020

Rakesh Mehta
Vice President
Topics to be covered

- Legal Structure
- Contents of Register
- Register details to Issuer
- Other Disclosures
Legal Structure

Register of Members

- Issuer maintains the Register of Members (Physical + Demat)
- Depository is a Registered Owner in respect of securities held in dematerialised form
- The register and index of beneficial owners maintained by a depository shall be deemed to be register of Issuer
- Segregated account structure maintained where end beneficial owner hold securities in account with depository
- Depository maintains register for different securities in dematerialised form
REGISTER OF MEMBERS

PHYSICAL

Registered Owner 1
Registered Owner 2

Registered Owner 1
Registered Owner 2

Beneficial Owner 1
Beneficial Owner 2
Contents of Register

Demographic Details
- Name of the demat account holder
- Address (Permanent, Correspondence, Foreign)
- Mobile Number/Telephone Number
- Email ID

Type of account
- Individual (Resident, NRI, Foreign, etc.)
- Body Corporate (Domestic, Foreign, Bank, etc)

Financial details
- Linked Bank account number
- Bank Name
- PAN
Register details provided to the Issuer

Information provided in Register

- Demographic details
- Type of account
- Financial Details
- Holding details i.e., Free, Pledge, etc.
- Option available to shareholder not to share email ID to Issuer

When is the Register provided to the Issuer

- Weekly
- Quarter end
- For any Corporate Action e.g. Dividend/Interest payments, Bonus, Mergers, Split etc.
Other Disclosures

Ultimate Beneficiary Owner (UBO) details for legal entities

- Issuer has obligation to collect UBO details from holders directly
- Participant collects and maintains UBO details from the demat account holder
- UBO details are not maintained at Depository

Disclosures on stock exchange

- Quarterly Shareholding pattern
- Disclosure of shareholders holding more than 1 % of the share capital
Thank you